Welcome

Leeds Skeptics is a friendly group of rationalists and critical thinkers who are skeptical about things like homeopathy, creationism, psychics, and what's going on in "real" science, medicine etc. More important information find out more about us here.

To keep up with what is going on, join our mailing list or find us on Facebook

Latest News

On Saturday 30 January 2010 Leeds Skeptics is taking part in the 10:23 campaign. We will be protesting against Boots, a traditional medicine company, and their promotion of unproven remedies alongside evidence based medicine.

For more details on the event see our press release or to get involved see our mailing list

Upcoming Events

The Bermuda Triangle
20 March 2010

Wikipedia describes it as "a region in the western part of the North Atlantic Ocean in which a number of aircraft and surface vessels are all reported to have disappeared in a manner that cannot be explained by current theories of aviation and maritime navigation."
